Christmas Blessings

Just as “God set the stars to give light to the world,” your loving support brings light to what would otherwise be a dark and uncertain world for the children of La Gran Familia Orphanage in Cuauhtémoc, Chihuahua, Mexico. Your gift will bring returns that can’t be measured in dollars but can definitely be measured in transformed lives.

This is no ordinary gift, but a gift that will provide hope for a brighter future for a child in Mexico. Every donation helps change lives.

Abel & Martín repaired the water storage system. The pipes were badly damaged by the sun. Also, installed a new 1100 liter water tank.

Andrea celebrates her birthday

Abel is studying agriculture. Luis is attending Science & Technology School. Reynaldo's specialty is robotics.

Día de Muertos

Jesús Manuel, 6, was rejected by his family. He lived in Chihuahua with his grandmother and was not attending school. He was very neglected and ill with pneumonia.

Eduardo

Eduardo, is 14 years old. He arrived at the shelter in August. His father left when he was born. He has lived with his mother, although she suffers from alcoholism and that puts Eduardo in danger while he stays at home.

He missed a whole year of school because he didn't have school supplies or uniforms. Now, he is returning to study and it is clear that he is very happy for this new opportunity. Thank you for your help for Eduardo.

Dulcé Celebrates 15 yrs

Gretel, 5 years old. She escaped family violence and alcoholism. She arrived in August and started her third year of pre-school.

Sofia is 5 Years Old

In August, she came to live at LGF. She begins her third year of kindergarten. She really likes dogs and playing on the trampoline. She also enjoys playing with dolls and bicycles. When she grows up she wants to be a teacher take advantage of a day without classes at their school to go on a bicycle ride and exercise. They are encouraged to keep their bodies strong and their minds free from bad influences.

Jorge, Toño, Felipe and Lalo

The Little Ones

It's a hot day. What would you do? Get snow cones of course!

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

¡Feliz Navidad y
Próspero Año Nuevo!

The girls and boys were invited by the city's College of Accountants to a swimming class at the municipal pool. After class, they were treated to breakfast. In the end, the kids were gifted a sports jacket and candy.
